

Dear Parents

You may have read that the National Education Union (NEU) members nationally have voted in favour of strike action demanding higher pay for teachers and increased funding for colleges. The planned first date of strike action is Wednesday 30th November and the strike will affect some Further Education and Sixth Form Colleges. Please note that this does not affect our college, we will be open as usual and any absence will be unauthorised.

Many Thanks

Mark Rothery

